	CLASSIFICATION_SECRET
	East Germany REPORT
INTRY	Return to Sperenberg of a Unit with New Amphibious Vehicles	25X1 - - nc	Beauti to sharement of a	25 X 1-
ALUATION_	PLACE OBTAINED	25X1_
TE OF CON	20 October 1954	25X1-
•	.0	,
AGES	1ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)	25X1
-MAKK2-T	his is UNEVALUATED Information
		25 X 1
1.	Soldiers and materiel detrained at the barracks installation on Schumke Lake (3441) on 5 and 6 October 1954 included: 5 October. A shipment of 36 track-laying amphibious vehicles. 6 October. At about 0400, 28 track-laying amphibious vehicles. At 0900, a shipment of 22 track-laying amphibious vehicles, 6 trucks, 2 field kitchens and 2 boxcarloads of soldiers	25X1
2.	Schumke Lake (3441) on 5 and 6 October 1954 included: 5 October. A shipment of 36 track-laying amphibious vehicles. 6 October. At about 0400, 28 track-laying amphibious vehicles. At 0900, a shipment of 22 track-laying amphibious vehicles, 6 trucks, 2 field kitchens and 2 boxcarloads of soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. The units, which had an estimated 300 soldiers, were quartered as previously north of Hege Lake. Thereafter, the Schumke installation was occupied by a total of approximately 2,300 soldiers. The welcome	25X1
	Schumke Lake (3441) on 5 and 6 October 1954 included: 5 October. A shipment of 36 track-laying amphibious vehicles. 6 October. At about 0400, 28 track-laying amphibious vehicles. At 0900, a shipment of 22 track-laying amphibious vehicles, 6 trucks, 2 field kitchens and 2 boxcarloads of soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. The units, which had an estimated 300 soldiers, were quartered as previously north of Hege Lake. Thereafter, the Schumke installation was occupied by a total of approximately 2,300 soldiers. The welcome by the Soviet families living there indicated that the troops were	25X1
	Schumke Lake (3441) on 5 and 6 October 1954 included: 5 October. A shipment of 36 track-laying amphibious vehicles. 6 October. At about 0400, 28 track-laying amphibious vehicles. At 0900, a shipment of 22 track-laying amphibious vehicles, 6 trucks, 2 field kitchens and 2 boxcarloads of soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. The units, which had an estimated 300 soldiers, were quartered as previously north of Hege Lake. Thereafter, the Schumke installation was occupied by a total of approximately 2,300 soldiers. The welcome by the Soviet families living there indicated that the troops were	25X1
	Schumke Iake (3441) on 5 and 6 October 1954 included: 5 October. A shipment of 36 track-laying amphibious vehicles. 6 October. At about 0400, 28 track-laying amphibious vehicles. At 0900, a shipment of 22 track-laying amphibious vehicles, 6 trucks, 2 field kitchens and 2 boxcarloads of soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. The units, which had an estimated 300 soldiers, were quartered as previously north of Hege Iake. Thereafter, the Schumke installation was occupied by a total of approximately 2,300 soldiers. The welcome by the Soviet families living there indicated that the troops were those previously observed there. Motor vehicle Were seen.	25X1
	Schumke Lake (3441) on 5 and 6 October 1954 included: 5 October. A shipment of 36 track-laying amphibious vehicles. 6 October. At about 0400, 28 track-laying amphibious vehicles. At 0900, a shipment of 22 track-laying amphibious vehicles, 6 trucks, 2 field kitchens and 2 boxcarloads of soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. The units, which had an estimated 300 soldiers, were quartered as previously north of Hege Lake. Thereafter, the Schumke installation was occupied by a total of approximately 2,300 soldiers. The welcome by the Soviet families living there indicated that the troops were those previously observed there. Motor vehicle Germent. Comment. This unit with track-laying the soldiers in the shipments of the shipments of the shipments. This unit with track-laying the soldiers is a shipment to the shipments of the shipments of the shipments.
	Schumke Lake (3441) on 5 and 6 October 1954 included: 5 October. A shipment of 36 track-laying amphibious vehicles. 6 October. At about 0400, 28 track-laying amphibious vehicles. At 0900, a shipment of 22 track-laying amphibious vehicles, 6 trucks, 2 field kitchens and 2 boxcarloads of soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. The units, which had an estimated 300 soldiers, were quartered as previously north of Hege Lake. Thereafter, the Schumke installation was occupied by a total of approximately 2,300 soldiers. The welcome by the Soviet families living there indicated that the troops were those previously observed there. Motor vehicle Comment. Comment. Comment. This unit with track-laying amphibious vehicles transferred from Sperenberg to Guesen on 2 trains
	Schumke Lake (3441) on 5 and 6 October 1954 included: 5 October. A shipment of 36 track-laying amphibious vehicles. 6 October. At about 0400, 28 track-laying amphibious vehicles. At 0900, a shipment of 22 track-laying amphibious vehicles, 6 trucks, 2 field kitchens and 2 boxcarloads of soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. The units, which had an estimated 300 soldiers, were quartered as previously north of Hege Lake. Thereafter, the Schumke installation was occupied by a total of approximately 2,300 soldiers. The welcome by the Soviet families living there indicated that the troops were those previously observed there. Motor vehicle Comment. Comment. Comments the three shipments were seen. This unit with track-laying amphibious vehicles transferred from Sperenberg to Guesen on 2 trains totaling 75 flatcars on 11 September. An additional 13 similar amphibious vehicles presumably arrived at Guesen from the USSR on
	Schumke Lake (3441) on 5 and 6 October 1954 included: 5 October. A shipment of 36 track-laying amphibious vehicles. 6 October. At about 0400, 28 track-laying amphibious vehicles. At 0900, a shipment of 22 track-laying amphibious vehicles, 6 trucks, 2 field kitchens and 2 boxcarloads of soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. The units, which had an estimated 300 soldiers, were quartered as previously north of Hege Lake. Thereafter, the Schumke installation was occupied by a total of approximately 2,300 soldiers. The welcome by the Soviet families living there indicated that the troops were those previously observed there. Motor vehicle Comment. Comment. Comment. Comments the three shipments amphibious vehicles transferred from Sperenberg to Guesen on 2 trains totaling 75 flatcars on 11 September. An additional 13 similar amphibious vehicles presumably arrived at Guesen from the USSR on 15 September. It is thus believed that a
	Schumke Lake (3441) on 5 and 6 October 1954 included: 5 October. A shipment of 36 track-laying amphibious vehicles. 6 October. At about 0400, 28 track-laying amphibious vehicles. At 0900, a shipment of 22 track-laying amphibious vehicles, 6 trucks, 2 field kitchens and 2 boxcarloads of soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. The units, which had an estimated 300 soldiers, were quartered as previously north of Hege Lake. Thereafter, the Schumke installation was occupied by a total of approximately 2,300 soldiers. The welcome by the Soviet families living there indicated that the troops were these previously observed there. Motor vehicle Comment. Comment. Comment. This unit with track-laying amphibious vehicles presumably arrived at Guesen from the USSR on 15 September. It is thus believed that a total of approximately 80 of these amphibious vehicles were assembled in the Guesen area after 15 September. The 86 amphibious vehicles
	Schumke Lake (3441) on 5 and 6 October 1954 included: 5 October. A shipment of 36 track-laying amphibious vehicles. 6 October. At about 0400, 28 track-laying amphibious vehicles. At 0900, a shipment of 22 track-laying amphibious vehicles, 6 trucks, 2 field kitchens and 2 boxcarloads of soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. The units, which had an estimated 300 soldiers, were quartered as previously north of Hege Lake. Thereafter, the Schumke installation was occupied by a total of approximately 2,300 soldiers. The welcome by the Soviet families living there indicated that the troops were those previously observed there. Motor vehicle Comment. Comment. Comment. This unit with track-laying amphibious vehicles presumably arrived at Guesen from the USSR on 15 September. It is thus believed that a total of approximately 80 of these amphibious vehicles were assembled in the Guesen area after 15 September. The 86 amphibious vehicles mentioned in the present report appears credible since,
	Sommke Lake (3441) on 5 and 6 October 1954 included: 5 October. A shipment of 36 track-laying amphibious vehicles. 6 October. At about 0400, 28 track-laying amphibious vehicles. At 0900, a shipment of 22 track-laying amphibious vehicles, 6 trucks, 2 field kitchens and 2 boxcarloads of soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. The units, which had an estimated 300 soldiers, were quartered as previously north of Hege Lake. Thereafter, the Schumke installation was occupied by a total of approximately 2,300 soldiers. The welcome by the Soviet families living there indicated that the troops were those previously observed there. Motor vehicle Comment.
	Schumke Lake (3441) on 5 and 6 October 1954 included: 5 October. A shipment of 36 track-laying amphibious vehicles. 6 October. At about 0400, 28 track-laying amphibious vehicles. At 0900, a shipment of 22 track-laying amphibious vehicles, 6 trucks, 2 field kitchens and 2 boxcarloads of soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. The units, which had an estimated 300 soldiers, were quartered as previously north of Hege Lake. Thereafter, the Schumke installation was occupied by a total of approximately 2,300 soldiers. The welcome by the Soviet families living there indicated that the troops were those previously observed there. Motor vehicle were seen. Comment. Comment. Comment. Comment. This unit with track-laying amphibious vehicles transferred from Sperenberg to Guesen on 2 trains totaling 75 flatcars on 11 September. An additional 13 similar amphibious vehicles presumably arrived at Guesen from the USSR on 15 September. It is thus believed that a total of approximately 80 of these amphibious vehicles were assembled in the Guesen area after 15 September. The 86 amphibious vehicles mentioned in the present report appears credible since, the three return shipments included 91 flatcars and kkym-type relatcars. distinguished between the standard-type amphibious vehicles with Sommke Lake (3441) on 5 and 6 October 1954 included: 5 October. A shipment of 36 track-laying amphibious vehicles. 6 October. At about 0400, 28 track-laying amphibious vehicles. At 0900, a shipment of 22 track-laying amphibious vehicles, 6 trucks, 2 field kitchens and 2 boxcarloads of soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. The units, which had an estimated 300 soldiers, were quartered as previously north of Hege Lake. Thereafter, the Schumke installation was occupied by a total of approximately 2,300 soldiers. The welcome by the Soviet families living there indicated that the troops were those previously observed there. Motor vehicle Comment.
	Schumke Lake (3441) on 5 and 6 October 1954 included: 5 October. A shipment of 36 track-laying amphibious vehicles. 6 October. At about 0400, 28 track-laying amphibious vehicles. At 0900, a shipment of 22 track-laying amphibious vehicles, 6 trucks, 2 field kitchens and 2 boxcarloads of soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. The units, which had an estimated 300 soldiers, were quartered as previously north of Hege Lake. Thereafter, the Schumke installation was occupied by a total of approximately 2,300 soldiers. The welcome by the Soviet families living there indicated that the troops were those previously observed there. Motor vehicle Comment.

Approved For Release 2008/04/07 : CIA-RDP80-00810A005400070011-6

1///^{25x1}